MOVES10: FRAMING MOTION

Wednesday 26 May

@ CCA, 350 SAUCHIEHALL STREET

Box Office: 0141 352 4900

£5 (£3) | 19.00

This season's re:surface screening will present moves10 touring programme, featuring the best films of the festival which, under the theme Framing Motion, explored how practitioners framed movement with their choice of context and investigated the definition of stillness. The programme will be introduced by Gala Pujol, Festival Director and will be followed up by a Q&A.

Established in the North West of England, moves is the largest exhibition platform in the UK for experimental short film and new media with a unique focus on movement on screen, exploring new ways of telling stories through films, installations and screen-based works.

(opposite Western Infirmary)

Booking: 0141 552 2442

Tickets: £7 (£6) In advance | £8 on the door

LIMITED SEATING

BLOND AMBITION EVENTS present...

A genre (and gender) bending piece of theatre cabaret created by Gypsy Charms and Chris JS Wilson, The Mating Ritual 'burlesques' men, women and our mating behaviours. Guiding you through a boisterously bawdy man-meets-woman history is the sharp tongued devil-in-disguise Des O'Connor. Starting with a famous royal couple and finishing with 80's pumping sexercise, the Mating Ritual uses a sensory cacophony of dance, burlesque and musical comedy to examine how convention suggests we charm, connive and con the opposite sex into continuing the human race.

GET DANCING!
